MOUNTIES GET-ACQUAINTED CAMPAIGN

All too often fear of the Uniformed Constable is implanted in the youngsters head by well meaning parents, who seek to force obedience to their wishes by threatening to turn the child over to a Policeman. This is bad psychology and implants in the child a distrust which he may carry through life. When he should be encouraged to look up to the policeman as his friend who he may turn to for help and guidance.

Canada's Mounties have opened up another new Frontier, "Youth and the Police." Thus the meaning of our law, the value of good citizenship and the relationship between the police and the citizen is being imparted in a most impressive manner by lecture and film to our youth.

Tuesday morning, Const. C. Ross of the local R.C.M.P. detachment, had shown in the Carbon Scout Hall three pictures, "Making of Mounties", "Northwest Passage" which shows voyage of the R.C.M.P. Schooner St. Roch over the top of the world, and a "Safety Campaign Picture." Const. Cunningham of Calgary gave short talks and Const. Mortimer was projectionist.

Approximately 150 happy boys and girls with their respective teachers from Carbon, Kern, Gamble, Webb, Simcoe and Avondale schools attended the showing.

The teachers say the $64 question now asked is "When is the next show?"

Fallow Methods

The management of the fallow is the most important factor in successful crop production. The principle objectives of fallowing are:

- 1 Conservation of the maximum amount of soil moisture.
- 2 Maintenance of trash cover or a lumpy condition of the soil to prevent, soil erosion.
- 3 Control of weeds.
- 4 Control of some insect pests.

Tillage operations should not be done more often, nor to a greater depth than necessary to control weeds, because of the danger of soil drifting.

Tillage implements such as the one way disc, duckfoot cultivator, and blade type weeders if properly used are suitable for weed control and for maintaining the trash cover or lumpy condition of the soil.

The quality of work done depends largely upon the timeliness of the operation and the condition and the adjustment of the machine.

The speed of operation is an important factor in doing a satisfactory job of fallowing. Experiments have shown that a speed of from 3 1/2 to 4 miles per hour is the most economical speed for fallow operations. High speed operation is costly, pulverizes the soil, destroying the trash cover so that soil drifting becomes a hazard.

When tractors are operated at moderate speeds the soil is turned without excessive pulverization and the stubble form an ideal trash cover.

WEDDING

White and blue streamers caught with silver bells formed the setting of a very pretty wedding solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Thurn, May 2nd, when Ruth E. Schlepp of Vida, Montana, became the bride of Albert Thurn, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Thurn, Rev. Leinweber of Calgary performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a toe-length gown of white satin and sheer the long fitted bodice being being fashioned of satin and the skirt of sheer. Her floor length veil of illusion net was fashioned in Queen Anne style and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Frieda Thurn, sister of the groom, was gowned in pink sheer, her fingertip veil of pink net being caught with pin krosebuds. The flower girl, Miss Esther Bauer of Torrington, was similarly gowned and each carried bouquets of pink flowers.

The groom was attended by Albert Bauer of Torrington and Alfred and Norman Thurn were the ushers.

Following the ceremony a bountiful dinner was served to 88 guests which included Mr. and Mrs. C. Weisgerber, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berreth, and

Albert of Beiseker; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Northcott and Geo. Jr., Bircham; Mr. and Mrs. J. Pippus, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. DRAGNET EXTENDED FOR E. B. BOTTLES

Poses organize for search in Alberta rural centres

The dragnet for E. B. Bottles, alias "Empties", widened today as search extends to Alberta's many towns and villages.

E. B. Bottles commonly known as Empty Beer Bottles became the subject of this intensive hunt following disappearance from essential duty in the bottling and brewing industry. Citizens are co-operating in an all-out effort to see that this culprit is brought to justice and returned to work so that the demand for Brewery products can be met.

It is believed that 'Empties' may be lying low in basements, closets, attics, garages or other places about the home, and for that reason, the co-operation of housewives in aiding the search is particularly requested.

CASH REWARD OFFERED

Housewives in cities, towns and villages are urged to search their premises through out. In the event of apprehension, Deliveries Limited should be notified at once. They have arranged to take "Empties" into custody, pay 20 cents per dozen cash reward on the spot and provide escort to the nearest bottle depot.

Rural citizens who may come across "Empties" can have him escorted, freight to the nearest Deliveries Limited depot and cash reward will be mailed immediately he is in custody. Depots are located at Camrose, Banff, Calgary, Edmonton, Blairmore, Medicine Hat, Drumheller and Lethbridge. McLennan is nearest depot for Peace River District.

THE NATION'S BUSINESS

The reason for the interest shown here in the International trade talks now going on at Geneva, is well illustrated in the exhibit which the Canadian government has at the "British Industries Fair" which opened May 5 and will continue until May 16. The five point outline of Canada's position gives emphasis to the claim that 35c out of every Canadian dollar comes from external trade and touches all sections of our people.

Our Trade Interests

Canadians are portrayed first as important customers. Because of our climate and geography which limits the variety of our production we will always be customers for a large number of items of quality goods at fair prices if we are to maintain our standard of living. As producers we will more and more require external markets for the surpluses we will always be able to produce as farmers, fishermen, lumbermen, miners and in some lines, manufacturers.

Our country is outlined as a land of industrial opportunity, a land of many still undeveloped resources which can be developed to offer more employment and to produce more goods that will further improve our standard of living. Next, Canada is shown as a world trader, situated on the highways of the world's established trade channels, with easy access to the United States, to Britain and the Far East.

Fifth and not least important is Canada's position as Britain's Butcher, Baker and Grocer. Britain has, for years, been our chief external market for a wide variety of foods, ranging from wheat in bulk to prepared sweets, including meat and fish products. In the first full year of peace Canadians supplied 86 percent of Britain's foreign requirements of wheat and flour, 73 percent of her external supply of bacon and ham as well as 45 percent of the eggs and 26 percent of the cheese which landed at British ports.

Impressive reasons for the interest each of us has in world peace and world trade.

Paralysis and Unrest

There is much interest in discussions on the report of the representative of one of our leading dailies on the political and economic situation in New Zealand. "It is not that material conditions are bad, although the North Island is in the throws of an electric power famine. The trouble is really spiritual, a kind of postwar malaise which is getting worse." The general election was held in November 1946 and no session of parliament has yet been called. Strikes are having a bad effect on the national morale and national pride is particularly hurt because of a strike of 200 ratings in the Royal New Zealand Navy.

No one contends that Canada is altogether free from the unrest that pervades the world but some point to a recent Gallup poll to show that we have achieved a real measure of confidence and unity. The poll showed 61 percent of our voters do not want an election now and feel that the government should live out its term. A majority of the voters in all parties concurred in this indication of some measure of satisfaction. Twenty one percent gave no opinion which perhaps indicates a lack of any major grievance. Only 18 percent wanted an election this year.

Dealers in Disaster

To what extent is our economic life threatened by those who continually foresee disaster? One of Canada's leading business men recently criticized very sharply those who "glory in working themselves into a state of gloom and hysteria" and particularly advised business men to take a constructive and progressive attitude.

Economists all seem to agree that confidence is an important factor in our continuing prosperity and if confidence is shaken by unfair and unjustified fears, great harm could be done. The extreme left wing political minds are the greatest offenders, perhaps because they predicted a depression. Their favorite topic is "I hope there is not going to be a depression, but . . ."

LATE SEEDING CONTROLS WILD OATS

A simple method of reducing the number of wild oats in your field is advocated by H. J. Mather, supervisor of soil conservation and weed control for the Alberta department of agriculture. This method is based on the knowledge that wild oats grow readily in the cool moist soil of early spring but when the soil warms up to 50F or higher the seeds go to sleep for the remainder of the season.

If the land is thoroughly cultivated about June 15th to destroy spring growth and then seeded to greenfeed or to an early maturing barley such as Olli, there will be a surprising reduction in the wild oat population.

OFF THE RECORD

Judging by the way taxes always seem to be necessary some people would like to call the name of a new ministry, the Department of Eternal Revenue

For determining directions in the polar regions the astro-compass is expected to be of value, with the sun and stars as stable reference points.

WORLD OF WHEAT

Most Serious Crisis in Britain

Britain faces the most serious crisis she has ever experienced in her history. She is faced with two grave difficulties. The first is to secure sufficient food of nutritive quality for her people, bread, eggs, butter, milk, cheese, meats and fruit juices that supply physical and mental energy, and enable a good day's work to be done.

Britain's other difficulty is to import, mainly from the United States and Canada, machinery for her factories to replace that which was destroyed or damaged during the war. The present loans from Canada and the United States are nothing like sufficient for these purposes.

I was shocked at the appearance of the British people. They are obviously suffering from mass malnutrition. They walk on their heels, their faces are grey and lined, they appear to be from 5 to 10 years older than their age. They are as tired in the morning as when they go to bed. They are incapable of a real day's work. Better food, then, and more of it, is Britain's very first requirement.

Can Canada do anything to help? For myself I think she can and ought to do something because Britain is Canada's greatest single market for wheat, bacon and many other products.
